LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 20.—To-day labor and fraternity days at the Logansport Elks' carnival, the festivities beginning at 10 o'clock this morning with a parade over the principal streets, in which the organized laboring men and unorganized secret societies of the city participated. The attendance at the carnival shows continues to increase, and to-day will prove the biggest money-maker of the first five days of the week. Saturday will be the farmers' and old people's day at the carnival, to be followed at night by the confetti battle, in which everybody is invited to take part. The closing of the festivities will be marked by the giving away of the Elks' automobile. The Logansport police were given plenty to do to-day to try to capture some of the pickpockets who have been operating among the carnival crowds.

This morning at 1 o'clock the police raided the room at the rear of one of the hotels and swooped down upon an unsuspecting crowd of "chuck-a-luck" players. There were over one hundred and fifty men in the place. A panic ensued, in which men tumbled over each other in a frantic effort to get away. The entire party tried to crowd into a little side room which was not large enough for more than twenty. They saw that all avenues of escape were cut off and were allowed to file out of the place, police standing guard at the entrance. No attempt was made to place them under arrest or to take their names. The men who conducted the game and the proprietor of the place were arrested. Clarence E. Runsey, a Logansport clothier, was charged with the game. He was taken to the jail. The Logansport police are now in the case of the Logansport clothier, who was charged with the game. STUCK FOR THEIR EMPLOYER.

Unique Action of Men in a North Manchester Factory.

WABASH, Ind., June 20.—It is not often that workmen go on strike for an increase of wages for their employer, but this occurred this week at North Manchester, where the employees of the Syracuse Manufacturing Company, sixty in number, quit because D. C. Lamb, owner of one-fourth of the concern, who has had the management of it, tendered his resignation on the ground that he was entitled to more than $1,000 a year as salary. The plant is owned by Lamb and Win Runyan, each one-fourth, and J. A. Browne, one-half.

The men wanted $1,000 a year, and Lamb, by reason of experience and ability he can earn that sum elsewhere. His partners refused to pay him more than $500 a year, and the men refused to work. The employees sided with him and requested Browne and Runyan to take the management of the plant. The men and the sixty employees struck. Arbitration was then proposed and three men were selected from the union to arbitrate with Lamb on both sides. The result was that a compromise on $1,000 was reached. Lamb was satisfied and the men all returned to work.

THE GLASS-BLOWING MACHINE.

President of the American Company Says It Will Be Perfected.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MUNCIE, Ind., June 20.—A Muncie man who was at Alexandria this week witnessed the test of the blowing machines installed by the American Window Glass Company makes the statement that the machine as a producer of marketable glass is not a success, generally speaking, and a great many improvements will have to be made to cause the machine to become a factor in the trade. According to his statement, the glass which is blown in the machine is of fair quality for a distance of perhaps two feet, but the glass at the end of the cylinder is chilled and gets brittle before it is finished.

This effect will have to be overcome and the glass made of an even heat before anything like perfection is reached. In some instances the glass did blow in the machine, but it was of such a nature that it was not being blown in the glass and little, if any, "A" glass was made, even from the best of the tempering by the machine. The process has not reached that degree of proficiency that characterizes the hand work.
